JOIN IIST, SIGN UP FOR ISRO

Indian Institute of Space Science and Technology (IIST) is Asia's first Space University offering courses from undergraduate to doctoral level in Space Science and Technology. Situated in the picturesque locale of Valiamala in Thiruvananthapuram District, Kerala, the Institute is poised to become a world class centre of learning and research.

We offer B.Tech. Programmes in Aerospace Engineering, Avionics and Physical Sciences. Admissions to these programmes are based on an admission test conducted by IIST. Assistance is provided to all B.Tech. students to cover the cost of education, boarding, lodging and health care. On successful completion of the course with prescribed academic standards, the students will be absorbed in ISRO as Scientists / Engineers.

For the B.Tech. admissions of the next academic year (2011-12), IIST announces

ISAT-2011 (IIST Admission Test - 2011)
